EDSF ANNOUNCES TWO NEW DIRECTORS

Conduit, Inc. and OfficeMax Executives Join EDSF Board

HURST, Texas U.S.A (May 10, 2012)---The Electronic Document Scholarship Foundation (EDSF), the international non-profit organization dedicated to developing and providing programs to attract and support students worldwide with their education plans, is pleased to announce two new additions to its 2012 Board of Directors. Among EDSF's leadership roster of highly respected and well-known industry CEOs, presidents and top executives are new Directors, Mark Potter, of Conduit, Inc. and Publisher of CANVAS Magazine, and Brian Feutz, of OfficeMax.

Brenda Kai, EDSF's executive director, said, "With innovative and passionate industry leaders like those on our Board of Directors, EDSF will surely succeed in its mission of bringing the best and brightest new minds to our industry. We welcome Potter and Feutz and are deeply grateful to all of our board members for their valuable time and contributions."
